

FATHERHOOD AND FEMINISM:

JUSTICE, CARE, AND GENDER IN THE FAMILY

By M. Christian Green

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1 Fatherhood and Feminism: Irreconcilable Differences?

- Fatherhood and Feminism at the Fin de Siècle
- From the “War on Terror” to the “Mommy Wars”: The Gender of 9/11
- Ethics of Justice and Ethics of Care
- Law, Religion, and Norms of Fatherhood
- Toward a Feminist Critical Hermeneutic of Fatherhood and Family

Chapter 2 Fathers in Law: From Putativity to Paternity

- “Who’s Your Daddy?”: Fatherhood in Media, Culture and the Law
- Biology, Culture, and Paternity: The Evolution of a Constitutional Standard
- History, Tradition, and the “Unitary Family”: Justice Scalia’s Hermeneutic of Fatherhood
- Baby Jessica, Baby Richard and Other Late Twentieth-Century Controversies
- The Fathers’ Rights Movement at Home and Abroad

Chapter 3 Feminist Perspectives on Fatherhood in Law and Ethics

- Liberal Feminism: Equality, Difference, and Justice
- Gynocentric Feminism: Care, Dependency, and Maternity
- The More Things Change: Recent Studies of Women, Men, and Parenthood
- From Equality to Equity: The Need for a Reconstructed Liberal Feminist Theory of Fatherhood

Chapter 4 The Aristotelian Tradition of Fatherhood: Biology and Culture in the Ethics and the Politics

- The Argument for Mutuality in Human Reproduction
- Justice, Friendship, and Equity between Fathers and Mothers
- Household Codes, Paternal Certainty, and Aristotle’s Counter-Cultural Critique

Chapter 5 The Thomistic Tradition of Fatherhood: Sex, Marriage, and the Common Good

- The Gender of Sex and Lust
- Marriage, Partnership, and the Community of Works
- Sacramental Marriage and the Mutuality of Creation and Redemption

Chapter 6 Locke's Liberal Family: From Patriarchy to Contract

- Nature, Patriarchy, and the Contractual Family
- The Biology of Fatherhood and the Duty of Paternal Care
- Contract and Care in the Voluntary Liberal Family

Chapter 7 Rousseau's Cultural Family: Gender Differences and the Formation and Deformation of Morality

- Nature, Culture, and the Male and Female Problematics
- Gender, Morality, and Parental Attachment
- The Moral Formation of Mothers and Fathers

Chapter 8 Mill's Modern Family: Fatherhood, Liberal Autonomy, and the Subjection of Women

- Fatherhood and the Limits of Liberal Autonomy
- Sympathy, Equity, and the Family as a School for Virtue
- The Moral Deformation of Men and Women

Chapter 9 The Rise and Decline of Fatherhood in the Papal Social Encyclicals

- Pope Leo XIII: Headship, Humility, and the Breadwinner Father
- Pope John Paul II: The Dignity of Mothers and the Marginalization of Fathers
- Pope Benedict XVI: Caritas and Paternity in the New Millennium

Chapter 10 Mid-Twentieth-Century Protestant Perspectives on the Family

- Emil Brunner: Love, Marriage, and the Divine Imperative
- Helmut Thielicke: The Ethics of Sex
- Reinhold Niebuhr: Domination and Bonds of Justice in the Family

Chapter 11 Manning Up for Fatherhood: The Global Crisis of Masculinity in the Twenty-First Century

- The "End of Men" or the "End of Macho"?
- The Global Recession and the New Gendered Economics of the Family
- Fatherhood and Revolution: Some Observations on Gender, Family, and Democracy

Chapter 12 Justice, Care, and Grace: Feminist Theological Ethics of the Family

- Natural Law Feminism, Liberal Feminism, and the Justice/Care Debate
- Virtue and Justice in the Family
- A Necessary Grace: The Limits of Feminine Care and the Need for Fatherhood

Chapter 13 Toward a Feminist Critical Hermeneutic of Fatherhood and Family

- Reconstructing Fatherhood, Family, and Feminism
- A Feminist Re-reading of Justice Scalia's Hermeneutic of History and Tradition
- Feminism, Fatherhood, and Possibilities for Reconciliation